

ENGL& 227 : British Literature II

Credits 5

Quarter Offered Occasionally

Theme-based study of selected masterpieces of British literature in context. This class may include students from multiple sections. (Humanities, Elective)

Prerequisites

ENGL& 101 or instructor permission

Course Outcomes

- Read literature with insight.
- Formulate verbal responses to literature.
- Acquire knowledge about major British authors and their works.
- Acquire a sense of how English developed as a language.
- Hone research skills.
- Increased pleasure from reading literature.
- Increased appreciation for all the arts.
- Increased knowledge of self and world.
- Increased wisdom.
- Increased sensitivity to diversity and other people.