

CSIA 295 : Cybersecurity Internship

Credits 1-5

Internship in a workplace setting of the student's choice, based on needs and interests. Fifty-five hours per credit. This class may include students from multiple sections.

Prerequisites

Instructor permission

Course Outcomes

Develop an internship learning contract with supervisor to describe duties, responsibilities and hours.

Apply skills and concepts learning throughout the student's studies in the field of information security/ cybersecurity to real world projects in a real workplace.

Develop a list of strengths, weaknesses and opportunities for continued professional development based on the duties, responsibilities and feedback from the internship learning contract supervisor.