

ENGL& 226 : British Literature I

Credits 5

Quarter Offered Winter (even year)

Survey of British literature from diverse periods. Selections will vary by quarter but will include classic and influential texts. This class may include students from multiple sections. (Humanities, Elective)

Prerequisites

ENGL& 101 or instructor permission

Course Outcomes

- Read literature with insight.
- Formulate verbal responses to literature.
- Acquire knowledge about major British authors and their works.
- Acquire a sense of how English developed as a language.
- Hone research skills.
- Increased pleasure from reading literature.
- Increased appreciation for all the arts.
- Increased knowledge of self and world.
- Increased wisdom.
- Increased sensitivity to diversity and other people.