

GS 185 : Student Leadership

Credits 2Quarter Offered Fall, Winter, Spring

Development of leadership skills and experiences through lecture, lab and group activities. Examines personal leadership styles, ethics, conflict resolution, communication and related topics. This class may be repeated up to three times for a total of six credits. Instructor permission required. This class may include students from multiple sections. (Elective)

Prerequisites

Instructor permission

Course Outcomes

- Identify and develop leadership principles, including leadership styles, effective communication, parliamentary procedure, conflict resolution, problem solving, delegation, decision making and team work.
- Examine ethical practices as they relate to leadership.
- Develop interpersonal communication skills.
- Plan, implement and evaluate events and activities.
- Explore the purpose and process of selecting and setting goals.
- Explore and encourage critical thinking.
- Identify historical leaders and evaluate those leaders.
- Explore theories of leadership.
- Manage a budget.