

KLA 123 : Klallam Language III

Credits 5

Quarter Offered Spring

This is a continuation of KLA 122. We will continue deepening and expanding our understanding of the Klallam language. More on transitive and passive constructions; expressions of time, place, and path; discourse structure and storytelling patterns will be covered with ample practice in use. This class may include students from multiple sections. (Humanities, Elective)

Prerequisites

Completion of KLA 122

Course Outcomes

- Apply new Klallam language vocabulary through a variety of written and oral assignments.
- Demonstrate novice level of proficiency in listening, reading, writing, and speaking in Klallam.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the grammar of the Klallam language.