

CTAP 160 : Capstone Project

Credits 2

In this capstone course, students will experience the link between theory and practicum through completing a relevant project. This project will integrate the skills and abilities acquired during the program and demonstrate competencies learned.

Course Outcomes

Construct a building project utilizing safety standards and proper equipment from blueprint drawing to completion.

Compose a portfolio of materials needed to enter construction apprenticeship program or employment.