

Communication : Communication

The ability to successfully communicate with another person is vital in today's fast paced work environment. Knowing how to share information, connect with others, and minimize mis-understandings are skills for anyone to possess. (6 contact hours)

Course Outcomes

- Understand communication styles in the workplace
- Overcoming communication roadblocks and barriers
- Utilize communication tools for successful interactions