

Change Management/Leading Change : Change Management/Leading Change

Change has become an everyday occurrence. Changes to technology, the workforce, the community...our ability to lead an organization successfully through change in all its manifestations is key to success in today's work environment. In this interactive workshop, learn how to motivate through change, minimize resistance to change, and gain change acceptance in the workplace. (6 contact hours)

Prerequisites

Leadership Certificate Program (36H)

Course Outcomes

- Understand the dynamics and impact of change
- Learn how to help others navigate through the phases of change
- Recognize and manage resistance to change
- Plan change efforts that succeed