

Leadership For Top Productivity : Leadership For Top Productivity

High productivity is a key to organizational success. The ability to successfully manage resources and achieve productivity goals is the primary focus of this interactive workshop. Additionally, learn how to minimize productivity barriers, manage change and change resistance, and motivate employees to attain productivity success. (6 contact hours)

Prerequisites

Leadership Certificate Program (36H)

Course Outcomes

- Identify and define the productivity drivers in an organization
- Formulate effective conversations with employees related to productivity goals
- Describe the methods to achieve productivity goals in the workplace
- Illustrate the process necessary to bring about and support organizational change
- Recognize the role of leadership in a culture of change