

AOS 213: LEGAL OFFICE PROJECTS

Develops professional skills used to complete a variety of legal projects using current computer hardware technology and application software. Students translate project instructions into an electronic format and accurately transcribe and complete legal forms. Problem-based learning methods are employed to complete realistic consultative and administrative tasks.

Credits: 5

Prerequisites: AOS 211.

Program: Administrative Office Systems