

ATEC 241: ALTERNATIVE FUELS I

(inactive, January 2017). An ASE/NATEF course designed to familiarize the student with safety in working with biofuels and alcohol fuels, biofuel and ethanol production, sources, performance, efficiency and emission properties, and scientific principles needed to understand energy and environmental processes.

Credits: 10

Prerequisites: ATEC 200, 201, 202, 203, 205, and 206 (or 204) or instructor permission. AMATH 121 or concurrent enrollment.

Program: Automotive Technology