

CONST 225 : Construction Management

Credits 3

Quarter Offered Spring

Learn leadership and ethics for construction management and the business of being a contractor. Explore legal requirements and risk analysis for a construction project. Analyze cost and project budgets. This class may include students from multiple sections. (Formerly GRBD 225)

Course Outcomes

Create a successful business plan that includes a vision statement, for the construction industry.

List and describe all the legal requirements to become a contractor.

Develop the ability to identify and analyze the risks associated with a construction project.

Understand the basics of cost flows and project budgets.

Understand the ethics of construction management.