ENGL& 227: British Literature II

Credits 5

Quarter Offered Occasionally

Theme-based study of selected masterpieces of British literature in context. This class may include students from multiple sections. (Humanities, Elective)

Prerequisites

ENGL & 101 or instructor permission

Course Outcomes

Read literature with insight.

Formulate verbal responses to literature.

Acquire knowledge about major British authors and their works.

Acquire a sense of how English developed as a language.

Hone research skills.

Increased pleasure from reading literature.

Increased appreciation for all the arts.

Increased knowledge of self and world.

Increased wisdom.

Increased sensitivity to diversity and other people.