

HONOR 120 : First Year Interdisciplinary Seminar I

Class Program

Honors

Credits 1

In two hour bi-weekly seminars students will discuss ideas central to civilization using a Great Books approach. Students read seminal ideas that have stood the test of time prior to seminars and actively participate by listening, thinking, speaking.

Prerequisites

Acceptance into the Honors Program. HONOR 120 and 121 are nonsequential.

Course Outcomes

1. Students will summarize and explain the core themes of the course using both spoken and written language.
2. Students will apply a core theme to a topic from a general education course to explore the significance of that topic in contemporary culture.