

HONOR 121: FIRST YEAR INTERDISCIPLINARY SEMINAR II

In two hour bi-weekly seminars students will discuss ideas central to civilization using a Great Books approach. Students read seminal ideas that have stood the test of time prior to seminars and actively participate by listening, thinking, speaking.

Course Student Learning Outcomes

1. Students will summarize the core themes of the course using both spoken and written language.
2. Students will apply a core theme to a topic from a general education course to explore the significance of that topic in contemporary culture.

Credits: 1

Prerequisites: Acceptance into the Honors Program. HONOR 120 and 121 are non-sequential.

Program: Honors