

PE 138: Advanced Research Diving & Safety

Students are introduced to diving techniques for working underwater, safety guidelines, research and dive planning, physics and physiology of diving, and the marine environment. Upon successful completion, students can obtain NAUI master diver certification, NAUI rescue certification, DAN oxygen administration, CPA/First Aid certification, and AAUS verification of training.

Course Student Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion, students can obtain:

1. NAUI master diver certification
2. NAUI rescue certification
3. DAN oxygen administration
4. CPR/First aid certification
5. AAUS verification of training.

Credits: 5

Prerequisites: SCUBA certification. (E)

Program: Physical Education