

TM-BAS 355 : Tribal Citizen Entrepreneur

Credits 5

Quarter Offered Winter

This course will provide students fundamental knowledge in areas of economic development, entrepreneurship and management applied in the context of administration in Tribal communities and commerce. This class may include students from multiple sections.

Must be seeking a Bachelor of Applied Science in Management degree to enroll. If interested, visit pencol.edu/bas

Prerequisites

Tribal Management BAS Program Admittance

Course Outcomes

Identify indigenous organizational structures that meet Tribal and community needs.

Apply knowledge of administrative management to support Tribal organizational goals.

Demonstrate how to utilize, implement, and organize resources and effective processes to meet Tribal and community needs.

Explain sustainable and culturally sound practices in Tribal and community entrepreneurship.